

Mergers and Acquisitions

Asterion, Inc. ("Asterion") has experience in assisting businesses, funds, law firms and individuals before, during and after a merger or acquisition transaction.

Do you:

- Need to know the value of your business or a potential acquisition target?
- Need to understand the quality of reported earnings?
- Need an allocation of the purchase price?
- Need assistance with determining proper working capital or other post-closing adjustments?
- Need assistance in determining the financial impact of a breach of representation or warranty made at closing?

We can help with:

- Preparing a business for sale from a financial perspective
- Financial due diligence, including quality of earnings analyses
- Evaluation of existing financial systems and controls
- Valuation analyses and determination of fair market value
- Quantification of the financial impact of anticipated synergies
- Purchase price allocation and impairment testing
- Discovery requests, including document requests, depositions and interrogatories
- Quantification of damages, such as losses from a breach of representation or warranty, fraud or other cause of action
- Review and rebuttal of opposing expert reports
- Settlement analyses and expert witness testimony
